

PLAYER CODE OF CONDUCT

___ I will play for fun! To learn to play the game is good; to grow to love the game is great!

___ I will work hard to improve my skills and develop good practice habits.

___ I will be a team player, get along with teammates and coaches and make teamwork, sportsmanship and discipline the foundation of my game.

___ I will be on time for practices and games.

___ I will learn the rules of hockey and play by them and always be a good sport.

___ I will never argue with officials. I will accept their decisions, move on and remain positive.

___ I will respect my coaches, teammates, parents, opponents and officials. Take my game to its highest level by acknowledging and applauding great efforts, no matter who makes them.

___ I will refrain from dangerous conduct. McCall Youth Hockey requires that players show concern for the safety of their teammates, opponents, coaches and officials at all times. Any behavior that could injure another player, coach, official or bystander, will be considered dangerous.

___ I will refrain from disruptive conduct. McCall Youth Hockey will not accept behavior that disrupts games, practices, chalk talks or other learning sessions. Disruptive activities include, but are not limited to, "horseplay," rudeness, disrespect shown to teammates or coaches, arguing and fighting.

___ I will refrain from conduct that is in poor taste. McCall Youth Hockey will not endure behavior that tarnishes its reputation in the hockey community and in the community at-large. Unbecoming activities include, but are not limited to, poor sportsmanship, harassing teammates, coaches, officials or spectators, and taunting.

___ I will refrain from conduct that shows a lack of commitment to the team. McCall youth Hockey is built on a core belief that no individual is bigger than the team and will not tolerate behavior that reflects disregard for this core belief. Behaviors that suggest a lack of commitment to the team include, but are not limited to, repeated late arrival for games and/or practices, failure to attend games and/or practices and repeated challenges of a coach's authority to set rules and ask that those rules be followed and to determine players' on-ice positions and playing time.

I understand by initialing and signing this document, any violation of the Player Code of Conduct could result in non participation, affect "Membership in Good Standing", and possible review from the MYHA Discipline Review Committee.
