2026-2027 MYHA PLAYERS' CODE OF CONDUCT

McCall Youth Hockey has a Code of Conduct that it expects all players to follow. In addition to helping make the hockey season more fun, safe and positive, these actions represent fundamental lifetime skills. Play for fun! Learning to play the game is good; to grow to love the game is great!

- Players will work hard to improve their skills and develop good practice habits.
- Be a team player. Get along with teammates and coaches. Make teamwork, sportsmanship and discipline the foundation of your game.
- Be on time for practice and games. Learn the rules of hockey and play by them. Always be a good sport.
- Never argue with officials; accept their decisions, move on and remain positive.
- Respect their coaches, teammates, parents, opponents and officials. Take their game to its highest level by acknowledging and applauding great efforts, no matter who makes them.
- Players shall refrain from dangerous conduct. McCall Youth Hockey requires that players show concern for the safety of their teammates, opponents, coaches and officials at all times. Any behavior that could injure another player, coach, official or bystander, will be considered dangerous.
- Players shall refrain from disruptive conduct. McCall Youth Hockey will not accept behavior that disrupts games, practices, chalk talks or other learning sessions. Disruptive activities include, but are not limited to, “horseplay,” rudeness, disrespect shown to teammates or coaches, arguing and fighting.
- Players shall refrain from conduct that is in poor taste. McCall Youth Hockey will not endure behavior that tarnishes its reputation in the hockey community and in the community at large. Un-becoming activities include, but are not limited to, poor sportsmanship, harassing teammates, coaches, officials or spectators, and taunting.
- Players shall refrain from conduct that shows a lack of commitment to the team. McCall youth Hockey is built on a core belief that no individual is bigger than the team and will not tolerate behavior that reflects disregard for this core belief. Behaviors that suggest a lack of commitment to the team include, but are not limited to, repeated late arrival for games and/ or practices, failure to attend games and/or practices and repeated challenges of a coach’s authority to set rules and ask that those rules be followed and to determine players ’on-ice positions and playing time.
- Players shall refrain from illegal conduct. McCall Youth Hockey will not tolerate players’ engagement in illegal activities while participating in McCall Youth Hockey at practices, games or tournaments. Illegal activities include, but are not limited to, theft, vandalism of property, using illegal drugs, abusing prescription drugs and using alcohol.
